8. In response to Findings of Fact Numbers Six (6) and Seven (7), Respondent states the life-changing event that lead up to her DWI offenses was the death of her father, whom she was very close to. She states on the date of the first DWI, she was moving out of the house she grew up in and had lived in prior to and following the death of her father, to Kerrville for a new start and to be near her sister. She states she was crushed and made a poor decision to drink and drive. Respondent states the second DWI was Christmas Eve 2008. She states her family was having a Christmas Eve gathering and during the gathering, she was flooded with emotion at the remembrance of her father and opened a can of beer. She states she left the gathering shortly afterward and was drinking beer while on her way home. Respondent states the incidents happened at a time while she felt lost. She states the activities mandated by the probation - completion of a DWI victim impact panel, a DWI Class and completion of an outpatient treatment program - were very therapeutic, in that they were a daily reminder of her poor choices. Respondent states she have become very active in her church and they have helped her to deal with her grief in a more positive way.
