1. Prior to institution of Agency proceedings, notice of the matters specified below in these Findings of Fact was served on Petitioner and Petitioner was given an opportunity to show compliance with all requirements of the law for retention of the license.
2. Petitioner waived notice and hearing, and consented to the entry of this Order.
3. Petitioner received an Associate Degree in Nursing from Asheville-Buncombe Technical Institute, Asheville, North Carolina, on May 1, 1977. Petitioner received a Baccalaureate Degree in Nursing from the University of South Florida, Tampa, Florida, in 1984. Petitioner was originally licensed to practice professional nursing in the State of Texas on August 6, 1986.

4. Petitioner's professional nursing employment history includes:

1977 - 1978	ICU Staff Nurse	Memorial Mission Hospital Asheville, North Carolina

Petitioner's professional nursing employment history continued:

6/78 - 3/80	SICU/Labor & Delivery Staff Nurse	Charity Hospital New Orleans, Louisiana

5. On May 9, 2006, Petitioner's license to practice professional nursing in the State of Texas was revoked by the Board of Nurse Examiners for the State of Texas. A copy of the May 9, 2006, Order of the Board and Formal Charges is attached and incorporated, by reference, as a part of this Order.
6. On or about April 15, 2008, Petitioner submitted a Petition for Reinstatement of License to practice professional nursing in the State of Texas.
7. Petitioner presented the following in support of her petition:
 - 7.1. Letter, dated May 5, 2007, from Sandra Fetting, Parole Officer, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, San Antonio, Texas, states Petitioner is in compliance with all parole conditions of release.
 - 7.2. Letter of support, dated August 1, 2007, from Ben Bingham, Attorney at Law, San Antonio, Texas, states he is the attorney that represented Petitioner since her ex-husband's third bankruptcy was filed in October 2004. Mr. Bingham's opinion is that Petitioner has been the victim of bad advice from her criminal lawyer more than anything else. Petitioner was advised to enter a plea bargain on facts for which no jury would ever convict her or find that she had criminal intent. If her ex-husband had paid her as he agreed to do under their divorce decree, she never would have been convicted of a crime and sent to prison. If he had paid her, she could have paid the restitution required to prevent conviction. During Mr. Bingham's course of representing Petitioner, he has known her to be candid, honest, ethical and cooperative. He is amazed at her strength, both physically and her strength of character and positive attitude in the face of the most vicious manipulation by an ex-husband. Throughout these trials, the two things that she was most worried about were her children and her nursing license. Mr. Bingham respectfully recommends that Petitioner's license to practice nursing be reinstated.
 - 7.3. Letter of support, dated June 4, 2007, from Shelbie Hulse, Helotes, Texas, states she has been a fellow employee and friend of Petitioner and has known her for about eight (8) years. Ms. Hulse sponsored Petitioner when she was up for parole and she lived with her for a couple of months until she was able to provide for herself. Petitioner was not resentful, but grateful for the opportunity to move forward. She was very disappointed when she realized she lost her nursing license and has made every effort to put herself on track to be reinstated. Petitioner is loyal and devoted to her career. Ms. Hulse highly recommends Petitioner as a person of integrity for reinstatement as a registered nurse again.
 - 7.4. Letter of support, dated June 4, 2007, from David Walsh, San Antonio, Texas, he has known Petitioner for thirteen (13) years. During this time, he has always been amazed at her level of enthusiasm and degree of integrity. Petitioner has been a hard worker in her nursing career, loyal and dedicated. She has taken on and has extended been a hard worker in her nursing career, loyal and dedicated. She has taken on and has extended her professionalism to her every day life. She has demonstrated a community attitude in that she has cooked meals and taken them to several people over the years who were unable to help themselves. When Petitioner was released from prison, she blamed herself for working so hard that she did not pay attention to her financial situation to have caught it earlier. She is making every effort to get her life and her children's lives back on track. Her professional life as a registered nurse has always been top notch. Mr. Walsh recommends that Petitioner's license be reinstated.

- 7.5. Letter of support, dated June 5, 2007, from Alexandria Walsh, Columbus, Ohio, states she has known Petitioner for ten (10) years. Ms. Walsh finds Petitioner to be very honest and recommends that her nursing license be reinstated.
- 7.6. Letter of support from Trey Sertich states his mother has been a nurse for thirty (30) years. Mr. Sertich realizes that people make mistakes and that some mistakes lead to unforgivable consequences, but he does not think that is the case here. Petitioner recognizes the mistakes she has made and feels utter remorse for the suffering she has caused to her family. The healthcare system is her entire life outside of the family. Mr. Sertich asks that the Board allow Petitioner to return to nursing.
- 7.7. Documentation of twenty(20) Type 1 contact hours.
8. When Petitioner engaged in the underlying conduct that resulted in her conviction, there was absence of a criminal plan or premeditation.
9. The underlying conduct occurred in 2001 and she was convicted and sentenced in 2005. Petitioner has no criminal behavior subsequent to her conviction.
10. On July 16, 2008, Board Staff received confirmation from Jesse Alonzo of Jefferson Bank in San Antonio that Petitioner deposited $1,100 into her account and the Bank erroneously placed $110,000 in her account.
11. Petitioner has been making small payments towards restitution.
12. Petitioner has no past criminal behavior.
13. Petitioner is compliant with the conditions of her parole. Petitioner submitted a letter dated May 5, 2007 from Sandra Fetting, Parole Officer, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, that states she is in compliance. On August 6, 2008, Board Staff received confirmation from Officer Westlow, Petitioner's current parole officer, that Petitioner is still in compliance with the conditions of her release.

14. Prior to her conviction in 2005, Petitioner worked for Baptist Healthcare System from December 2002 to May 2003, then worked for Methodist Healthcare at the metropolitan hospital and later at the main hospital from June, 2004 to March, 2005. Since her release, Petitioner has worked for a family, taking care of a small child and household duties.
15. Petitioner has submitted an evaluation from Christopher B. Ticknor, MD who is a Board Certified Psychiatrist. Dr. Ticknor states that he evaluated Petitioner on June 30, 2008 and states he does not find evidence for a psychiatric diagnosis. He finds no basis to conclude she represents a danger to the public welfare and sees no reason why she cannot resume professional nursing without restriction.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Pursuant to Texas Occupations Code, Sections 301.451-301.555, the Board has jurisdiction over this matter.
2. Pursuant to Section 301.467, Texas Occupations Code, the Board may refuse to issue or renew a license, and may set a reasonable period that must lapse before reapplication. Pursuant to 22 TEX. ADMIN. CODE §213.26, the Board may impose reasonable conditions that a Petitioner must satisfy before reissuance of an unrestricted license.
