

conflicting and overlapping hours of care. Respondent's conduct resulted in an inaccurate medical records of patients.

7. On or about June 4, 2004, Respondent was excluded from the Texas Medicaid program by the Texas Health and Human Services Commission for overpayments due to Respondent billing for services not rendered, for billing services when the client was receiving care from another entity, and for billing two (2) different programs for the same hours for the same patient.
8. In response to the incidents in Findings of Fact Numbers Seven (7) and Eight (8), Respondent states that she photocopied pre-written forms in order to save time so that the information which was always the same would not have to be re-written. According to Respondent, the actual information that changed with each visit, including the intake and output, and the vital signs, were not part of the photocopied forms and she documented the actual values at the time of care.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW
