It is with great sadness I write to you letter. I have had a busy rewarding 40 yr. career in nursing. There have been obstacles along the way but I do believe everything happens for a reason. My solitary fall is March 8, 2008 which I am very proud of. I started my nursing career being awarded the Edna Carter Nursing Scholarship scholarship with my AA. alcohol meetings. They completely changed my life. I will start a new career in a child development center here in Plano.
I will retire my nursing license # 222717 today.
I followed all the rules of TPRN; I just could not find a job

Sincerely,
May Kay Helm
