10. In response to Findings of Fact Numbers Seven (7) through Nine (9), Respondent states that on December 18th, he picked his son up from school. His 18-month old daughter was secured in the backseat. They were driving to his sister's house, when he and his son got into an argument about the son's upcoming Christmas concert. Respondent pulled over into a park to speak to his son further. At this point his son became very noncompliant. Respondent proceeded to step out of his vehicle and spank his son (age 10), with his hand, while his son was sitting in the passenger's seat. Respondent states he was in no way excessive during the incident. After this, he proceeded to leave the park. He re-entered the truck and proceeded to back out of the parking lot. At this point a man, completely unknown to the Respondent, appeared in his open car window saying Respondent was under arrest. The man had no ID, so Respondent told him to leave him alone and mind his own business. Respondent proceeded to back out of the parking lot and the man reached into the window grabbing at his steering wheel, telling Respondent to stop. Respondent then asked the man to go away as he put the car in drive, and the man climbed onto the hood of his truck as Respondent started to drive forward. During this, the man continued to grab around the driver's side window pulling at the steering wheel. Respondent was now scared and told the man to get off of the truck, or he would get hurt. The man finally jumped down off of the vehicle. Respondent drove away, and went on to his sister's house. Respondent was very shaken by the event and his children were scared. He explained to his sister what had happened, and at her suggestion, had a drink to help him calm down. His wife then came to get the children, since he had consumed alcohol and didn't want to drive with them in the vehicle. He left his sister's shortly after his wife. He was pulled over on the way home. The officer told him she had heard about his vehicle being involved in the earlier incident in the park. The officer then arrested the Respondent. After giving a blood sample, Respondent was found to be over the legal limit. During the officer's search of his vehicle, she found an old firearm that belonged to his grandfather. It was not loaded, and he had neglected to take it out after helping his parents move some of his grandfather's belongings earlier that week. He was charged with Assault and the DWI. The weapons charge was deferred. When Respondent found out he was wanted for assault, he turned himself in to be processed through their system again.
