The TPN was obtained from the pharmacy and administered at 02:30 on October 9, 2007, and at 08:00, Respondent added "TPN for 10/8/07 same as ordered for 10/7/07" to the orders being provided at that time by the gastroenterologist. However, the gastroenterologist marked through the order and wrote, "NO! Nurse ordered w-out my consent!" Respondent's conduct may have compromised and/or complicated the gastroenterologist's medical plan of care for the patient.
8. In response to the incident in Finding of Fact Number Seven (7), Respondent states that the attending physician was present when she noted that the patient did not have a bag of TPN for what she believed should have been the patient's next scheduled dose, so she asked the attending about continuing the TPN based on the most previous order. According to Respondent, the attending physician concurred and another bag of TPN was ordered from the pharmacy. Respondent contends that the next morning, the gastroenterologist was upset because he had not been consulted before the TPN was administered.
